

666/25 presented with a deep, linear fissure on the dorsal surface of the tongue. The fissure is surrounded by a red, inflamed border. The overall color of the tongue is a bright red. The patient also has a linear fissure on the skin of the finger, which is also surrounded by a red, inflamed border. The skin appears dry and cracked.