

~~Verrucous Epidermal Nevus is a benign, localized, hyperkeratotic, verrucous epidermal nevus, often with a half-moon shape, characterized by multiple papules, nodules, and plaques, often with multiple pigmented~~